

TWO GREAT OPPORTUNITIES

First Great Opportunity is in Honduras

No doubt you have heard of the situation in Honduras. On June 28th the President of the country was ousted. This, of course, has led to very difficult and uncertain times for those living in Honduras.

We have a particular interest in this since Sharon Francis (far right) in the coastal town of Trujillo and Randy and Judy Lundrigan in the capital of Tegucigalpa are our missionaries in Honduras.

Fortunately, the Lundrigan's have been in Canada during this time. On the other hand, Sharon has remained in Trujillo where she has a strong ministry educating teenage girls and families. While, at the present, she is safe from harm the situation has caused a great deal of upheaval for the ministry which has made it difficult to consistently minister to these young women.

Pray for Honduras

Sharon exhibits a strong sense of God's presence through this time. She and the Lundrigan's have every confidence God will be glorified through these troubling days. Please keep Honduras in prayer as journey together through this time of upheaval. (These are just a few of the girls at the school)

...Missionaries to RAN Nations!

Currently, there are 37 people serving in these nations that have been sent out from PTS. The goal is to call, train and send 1000 in the 10 years. This is ambitious! And I think they're actually going to do it. To accomplish this we will be partnering with the centre for Muslim Outreach to help facilitate the training of those who are called to build bridges of friendship to those of the Muslim faith. In addition, the leaders of PTS are developing a missions strategy that will guide them into the next 10 years of growth.

...Personally Speaking

I struggle to contain my joy when I consider how missionaries from Canada have gone to Latin America to train people to go to the other side of the world with the Gospel. Truly, we are having a global impact! With your support it will only get greater.----James Threats of Violence!

Political upheaval is very unpredictable. There have been threats of violence as well as blockades on the main road. This has made it difficult to get the supplies Sharon needs. We thank the Lord that Sharon testifies "I have no fear." She knows the Lord has his hand on the girls and the school and herself. (picture at top left of page of Sharon in front of the school and her national co-worker)

Second Great Opportunity

One of the critical ministries in Brazil involves our Pentecostal Theological Seminary of the Northeast (PTS) which is led by Tom Fodor.(second from left) One of the purposes of PTS is to train people to go into cross-cultural ministry. Of particular interest is training people to go to Restricted Access Nations (RAN). Nelson Monteiro (far right) is responsible for missionary training.

...More than a Conference!

Just a couple of months ago I had the privilege of preaching at the annual Missions Convention hosted by PTS. In attendance were about 1000+ people. It was my privilege to rub shoulders with those who have already been living in the RAN area. They have gone at great cost and sacrifice. They need and covet our prayers.

It was wonderful to issue forth a call to missions in one service where dozens came forward to commit their lives to missions.

However, the greatest challenge is for the Brazillian Church to understand its responsibility to not just send and equip missionaries but to support them. Currently many of the missionaries are not adequately supported. This has not hampered their zeal. But it does distract from the many tasks at hand. We must pray for the Church in Brazil to raise the funds to send forth, and support missionaries.

Thank you for your involvement in Latin America and the Caribbean.

We appreciate your endless prayers, giving and correspondence.

Sincerely,
James & Colleen Guskjolen
